Dan, you indicated you had the name of a property manager for the courthouse. Galo wants access to paint his building – this tagging is a result of the squatters.

Do you have that information?

Gary, I just didn't have time to try to get this together. I think our best bet at some point will be to rely on Photo Shop.

No worries. Tim would have been our main helper on a project like this and he is trekking through the Phillipines, last I heard.

Good morning Kerry,

I would like to e-introduce you to Angie Aramayo, a former intern of ours who is working on bringing a service called "Project Burrito" to Hollywood in an effort to help the homeless.

Angie has reached out to LAPD, The Center and others including myself to provide details on her project and to gather feedback. I also wanted to connect her with you so she could hear your perspective as exec. director of the BID, LAHSA chair and Hollywood 4WRD.

Angie, if you could provide some more details for Kerry, that would be terrific.

Thanks, all!

Dan- Thank you very much for the introduction.

Hi Kerry,

I hope this email finds you well. As Dan has stated, I am interested in bringing the Burrito Project to Hollywood.

The project essentially focuses on providing toiletries, clothing and of course feeding the homeless. I have been involved with the monthly feeding in Skid Row and after seeing the positive impact it has on the people there, I have decided to push this to Hollywood in the hopes of it being a success over here. Once I have the monthly feeding program in place, I do plan to expand and bring in other resources based on the need of Hollywood.

City of Los Angeles Mail - Introduction to Angie Aramayo

I have spoken to a couple of agencies in Hollywood that deal directly with this issue and it is great that there are quite a bit of resources in Hollywood. As of right now, I do want to focus on driving around and feeding the homeless once a month. The Senior Lead Officers I have spoken to support the idea and are willing to help provide me with some feedback.

Any feedback on your end would be greatly appreciated.

Thank you,
Angie Aramayo

Angie, I would like to invite you to the next meeting of Hollywood 4WRD to share your idea. We just had a meeting two weeks ago, and we meet on an as-needed basis. I suspect our next one will be toward the end of March.

I will keep your information, and invite you to take some time on the agenda to get some feedback on this idea.

Dan, thanks for the introduction!

Kerry
